I DREAM MY DEATH

Poetry is a soul revealed and emotion personified. This collection of poems 'I Dream My Death' by Dr. Geetha Nambudiripad is a treasure-trove of real life observations and experiences. Her reflections are coated in simple and beautiful language though void of imageries and symbols. She is a lone dreamer who even dreams of her own death. Like Emily Dickinson whose poems expresses the finest aspects of human sensibilities and who is gentle and graceful in her outlook on life, Geetha Nambudiripad also has all the attributes as a poet who belongs to this wonderful lineage as her poems are subtle and gentle expressions of her own inner thoughts.

Dr. Geetha Nambudiripad is by profession a college teacher and has Ph. D in English Literature (Translation Studies). She has retold many classic folk tales into English for D.C Books, translated stories, novels and poems into English. She has also published a collection of poems "Lost Rains". She has published articles for many academic journals.

She is also interested in subtitling and has subtitled for Feature films, Documentaries and Short films.
