Friends..

True friends are forever dear,
It is not the benefits that I do care,
It is the true value that I prefer
Over all other things, beware.

True friends, have hearts to listen
To the tunes of doleful ness
To extend hands to help
And to pronounce forgiveness...

True friendship never dies
Even with one's demise
It continues to tell stories
To be inscribed as histories....

True friendship is a mount
Which is abound
With belief, respect and love
An unbreakable bond-

That truly keeps us happy
Forever and ever.
