PROGRAMME REPORT

The National seminar on Art of Research was conducted by the Department of Commerce on 20-05-2020. The sessions were handled by Dr. Sony Kuriakose on the topic 'How to write a research paper' and Dr. Sybila Paramondez on the topic 'Research as a dream'.

Dr. Sony Kuriakose started the session with a brief introduction on the importance of writing an effective research paper. He explained in detail about the various key elements involved in writing a research paper. The session covered all the main headings of the research paper including title, abstract, introduction, literature review, methodology, results and discussion and how to conclude. He emphasized the need for a concise title reflecting the essence of research and also mentioned that the conclusion should include the summary, implications and suggestions for future research.

He has also detailed the various reference styles for citations in order to avoid plagiarism. He suggested the importance of having planning and organization, revision and proofreading are the tips for a good research paper. By mastering the key elements and incorporating the tips provided in this seminar, participants can enhance their ability to contribute valuable research to their respective fields. The participants were acquainted with the essentials to follow a structured approach to ensure that the research is communicated effectively. The art of writing a research paper was effectively conveyed to the participants.

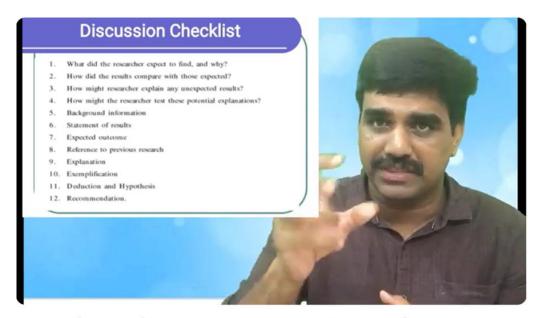

The primary objective of the session was to explore the concept of "Research as a Dream" and to foster a collaborative environment where participants could delve into the imaginative and transformative aspects of the research process. The session started with an interactive session on formulating research questions with brainstorming group activities to refine research ideas. The session helped to inspire researchers to approach their work with creativity and imagination.
