PROGRAMME REPORT

The IIC, IEDC and EDC along with the PG Department of Chemistry and Alumni Association have organized a seminar on the topic Intellectual Property Rights. Adv. Deepa Mohanan who is a Judicial First Class Magistrate of Thiruvananthapuram Court was the resource person.

The seminar aimed to provide students and faculty members with a fundamental understanding of the legal perspectives of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) and its applications in various domains. In the beginning of the session the resource person gave an overview of the significance of IPR, definition and types of IPR, protecting intellectual creations, outline of patents, copyrights, trademarks, and trade secrets.

The second session dealt with real-world examples of successful IPR application, the role of IPR in innovation and economic development, challenges and opportunities in the field of intellectual property etc.

In the final part of the seminar, the resource person has discussed topics such as the legal framework governing IPR, case studies highlighting legal issues and resolutions, judicial perspectives on IPR.

This concept is gaining importance day by day and the students were given a basic idea about what is IPR, various patent laws and legal protection of IPR. 86 students and 14 faculty members participated in the seminar.
