PROGRAMME REPORT

The seminar on Successful Women Entrepreneurship was organized by the Institution Innovation Council in collaboration with the P.G. Department of Commerce on 20th September 2021.

The session aimed to empower women with the knowledge and skills required to excel in the entrepreneurial world. Dr. Dilshad Raihana, an esteemed expert in the field, served as the resource person for the seminar. Dr. Dilshad Raihana, the resource person, delivered a comprehensive presentation on the key aspects of becoming a successful women entrepreneur.

The presentation covered topics such as identifying resources, developing essential skills, and navigating challenges. Dr. Raihana shared her personal experiences and success stories to inspire and guide the participants.

The experiences shared by the resource person helped the participants in gaining enough knowledge about the resources, skills, and challenges to succeed in entrepreneur endeavors. The participants were provided with an opportunity to interact with the resource person and they had a chance to seek advice on matters such as work-life balance, funding options available etc.

The seminar concluded with a feedback session where participants shared their thoughts and insights gained from the session. The closing remarks emphasized the importance of continued support for women entrepreneurs and encouraged participants to apply the knowledge gained in their entrepreneurial pursuits. Overall, the seminar helped in promoting entrepreneurship among women aspirants.
