Dear Faculties

Sree Sankara Vidyapeetom college is conducting a one week Online Short-Term Course titled “Extrapolations Through the Extraordinary: Broadening Perspective on Magic and Magicality” with the collaboration of Mahatma Gandhi University. The course is conducted with the academic collaboration of ISFNR which analyses witchcraft and other supernatural/magical subjects in the light of different academic disciplines. The course further focuses on the way in which a cultural text is defined by different methodological concepts of different disciplines. The course has been designed as an interdisciplinary one. All are invited to register and participate in the course.
